Grade School Board Sets Dec. 18 For Building Referendum

Would Add Nine Rooms at Estimated Cost of $325,000

The Antioch Grade school board of education Monday evening set Tuesday, Dec. 18 as a date on which the district will be asked to vote on a proposal to build an addition of eight class rooms and a domestic science room at an estimated cost of $325,000.

Petitions seeking 300 signatures are in circulation to authorize the board to place the proposal before the people.

The decision of the board to go ahead with the building program followed a joint meeting with the Parent-Teacher association in which the building program was discussed.

The board thought that in view of the ever increasing enrollment it might as well go ahead with plans. The school will take its chance with other schools in getting a priority rating for steel.

Build East of Gymnasium
The addition with four of the rooms upstairs for the older children and shops in the semi-basement will be at the east of the gymnasium with a wide runway from the exit of the gymnasium through it.

The firm of Ganster and Hennighausen, Waukegan, which served as architects for the recent addition, was given an extended contract.

There was talk of enlarging the cafeteria, and while there is no move yet in that direction, it was said that the cost would be an additional $25,000.

The district has a bonding power of $585,000 and has a present bonded indebtedness of $125,000. With the $325,000 new bonds the total would be $450,000 which would be $135,000 under the legal limit.

Present Hearing Sufficient
The architects told the P. T. A. members that the present hearing unit will take care of the addition without trouble.

The board of education comprises Emil Lubkeman, president; Henry J. Rentner, secretary; Harold Cardiff, Arthur Laursen, Charles Wertz, Walter I. Scott, and Roy Burdick. Richard Whitacre is principal.

Antioch Firemen to be Hosts to District at Meeting Monday Night

The Antioch Fire department will be host to the Lake County Firemen's association Monday evening, Chief Edgar Simonsen announced. Representatives of 22 departments are expected to attend.

Robert Quinn, battalion chief of the Chicago departments, will be one of the speakers. Another speaker will talk on radioactivity, atomic bombs and energy, the Geiger counter and sabotage.

A film will be shown on self preservation during a time of atomic bombing.

William Harrison of Round Lake is president of the district organization and will preside at the business session.

At the close of the program refreshments will be served.

The local firemen met last evening in completing plans for the event.

Barn On Howard Fogelstad Farm Near Ingleside Burns Lake Villa Fire Dept. Called

The Lake Villa and Fox Lake fire departments confined a fire at the Howard Fogelstad farm to the loss of the barn Monday afternoon.

Explosion of a heat bulb used in thawing some ice is believed to have started the blaze. Fogelstad, at work in another part of the building, saved three milk cows, two heifers and two calves, and some bags of grain, but the mow of hay, and much machinery were lost.

The loss, estimated at $15,000 was partly covered by insurance.

POST OFFICE TO OPEN THURSDAY A. M. TEL. 9

For convenience of patrons who may wish to pick up mail on Thanksgiving Day, the Antioch Post Office will be open until 8 a. m., according to Postmaster Roy Kufalk.

Year of Plenty Causes Antioch to Give Thanks At Holiday Tomorrow

Antioch will observe Thanksgiving Day in much the usual fashion—with family dinners.

Stores will be closed for the holiday, although drug stores will be open until 11 a. m. and restaurants will serve meals as usual.

Resorts will offer special dinners for the day with turkey as the principal item.

There will be a few homes in which the absence of men in the service will be noted. A prayer of Thanksgiving and hope for their safety will be expressed.

This has been a year of plenty with good harvests, much employment, and little labor dissension.

Antioch Opens Season in Conference Play With Wauconda Here Tonight

After splitting even in its pre-conference games, Antioch Township High school basketball teams will open league play tonight here in games with Wauconda's varsity and sophomores.

Play will start at 7:15 with the underclassmen taking the floor.

The Sequoits look much better this year than last and can hope for a fairly successful season.

After tonight's game the teams will play Northbrook there next Tuesday and at Barrington the following Friday night.

The freshmen lost to Zion Monday night 18 to 15.

The Sequoits lost a close one to Libertyville there Saturday evening 34 to 31.

After spotting the Wildcats a 19 to 13 lead at halftime, the Antioch boys fought back in the second half to take the lead 31 to 30 with but two minutes to play.

Pinkstaff scored a long one and then a close-in one handed shot for Libertyville in that time to win the (Continued on page 5)

Antioch Grade Team And Allendale Boys Split Two Contests

Antioch Grade school and Allendale split in two close basketball games last evening in games played at Antioch.

Antioch won the B team contest in overtime 25 to 24 and Allendale won the A team game that followed 36 to 33.

In the second game Allendale got away to a 12-point lead, but at the half Antioch drew up to 18-16, and passed them in the third quarter. It was nip and tuck to the close.

The Allendale team lacked the finesse this year that it had in the two previous years, although three members of last year's varsity are still on the squad.

On the other hand, the Antioch team has showed much improvement and must be reckoned with among other opponents.

Large Crowd Attended 10th District Legion Meeting Friday Night

Oscar Russell, Indianapolis, Second Division Chairman Was Speaker

One hundred and eighty delegates were present from 22 posts at the meeting Friday evening of the Tenth District American Legion, for which the Antioch post was host.

Oscar Russell, second division chairman of membership, came from Indianapolis, Ind., in serving as the speaker. He announced that the tenth district is leading the state of Illinois in membership, having 1,000 more members this year than at the same time last year.

The Sharyn post Legion Auxiliary from North Chicago exemplified the Ouchillary, an auxiliary of men to the woman's organization, in a successful manner.

Charles Whiteleather, new tenth district commander, had charge of the meeting and was introduced by O. I. Onstad, commander of the Antioch post.

The Antioch auxiliary served luncheon.

League Re-alignment To Be Discussed At Lake Forest on Dec. 5

Principal R. C. Edmundson will attend a meeting of the principals of schools in the Northwest conference, the North Suburban conference and three schools of the Suwanee conference the afternoon of Dec. 5, at Lake Forest in a study of re-alignment of membership.

While it was expected that no action would be taken at this meeting, serious consideration will be given to a change in membership.

Harvard, Marengo, and McHenry are in a league with five Wisconsin teams and under the control of two state high school athletic associations which makes the situation awkward. They want to join a Northern Illinois conference.

Northern Lake county teams don't like the idea of traveling 40 miles to Palatine, Bensenville and Northbrook and feel they should play schools closer home to a greater advantage so far as attendance is concerned, according to Principal Eberly of Grant Community High school, president of the Northwestern conference.

There are schools in the North Suburban conference who feel they are ill matched with some of the larger schools and want a change.

A shuffle of membership may work to an advantage of all schools, some of the school authorities believe.

Lions to Elect Officers; Postpone Auto Races

The Lions club board of directors meeting Monday evening decided to delay another year the proposal to stage a sportsman's automobile race. Inability to get road paving and other improvements in time for the race in June was given as the cause.

The event will be considered for the following year.

A slate of officers was chosen to be presented to the club at its dinner meeting Monday evening at Linder's.

Women of Moose Hold Initiation and Dance; Plan Christmas Party

Luncheon was served after the meeting by Irma Tuft, Irene Noble, and Gertrude Good. The next meeting will be on Thursday, Dec. 6.

Can We Afford to Lose Even One?

Mittie B. Harms, 75, Dies Suddenly Of Heart Attack

Mittie B. Harms, 75, 341 Harden street, passed away suddenly of a heart attack, Wednesday, Nov. 14, at her home. She was born Dec. 24, 1875 in Antioch township. After her marriage to John Harms, she lived in Wilmet, Wis., for one year afterwards moving to Richmond, where she lived 30 years before moving to Antioch in 1941.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Wade Sturdivant of Skokie and one son, Lester E. of Waukegan, one granddaughter, a brother Paul Volbrecht, Antioch, and a sister, Mrs. Hulda Collison of Richmond.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John C. Harms, November 13, 1947.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Strang funeral home. The Rev. G. Richard Tuttle officiated. Interment was in Hillside cemetery.

20,000 Pheasants Will Be Killed By Sunday in Lake, McHenry Counties

Lake Villa—An estimated 20,000 pheasants will be killed by hunters in Lake and McHenry counties by the end of the season Sunday.

Tags for controlled shooting areas have been issued for 5,300 birds so far and the number is expected to reach 15,000. There are 55 of such areas.

At the government hunting grounds east of Grass Lake and Fox lake, 106 birds are released each evening during the 25 days of hunting, making possible a kill of 2,625 from that source and 500 from regular stock here.

The rest of the 20,000 is accounted for in the birds that survive from year to year on private farms and in swails.

Pheasant hunting for the most part has become a put and take proposition, according to Ed. Sullivan, Dist. 1 office manager at the Lake Villa Conservation camp. It is he who issues the bands that are placed on the birds released on the controlled hunting areas.

In the past it has been estimated that for every license issued an average of one-and-one-third birds were shot. The rate this year will be higher.

More persons hunted in Lake County this year. Whole families were seen scouting the countryside at times.

Oscar E. Hachmeister, Former Meat Market Owner, Buried Monday

Oscar E. Hachmeister, 67, for 27 years a meat market owner in this village, died of a lingering illness at 4 p. m. Friday at his home, 810 N. Main st.

The funeral service was held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Strang funeral home with the Rev. G. Richard Tuttle officiating. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Mr. Hachmeister was born in Booneville, Ind., Feb. 10, 1884. He later moved to Evansville, Ind., where on Mar. 23, 1904 he married Miss Adah Williams.

While employed as a salesman for Swift & Co. for 10 years he resided at Danville, Ill., and later in Burlington, Wis.

He came to Antioch in October, 1923, purchasing the Kettlehut market which he later renamed the Quality Meat market. He was driven out of business by a fire Nov. 2, 1950.

Mr. Hachmeister was a member of Sequoit lodge 827, A. F. & A. M., and was past patron of Antioch chapter 428, Order of Eastern Star. He was a charter member and past president of the Antioch Lions club in which organization he was especially active.

Surviving are the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Trieger, Antioch, and Mrs. Richard Kennedy, Brookfield, Ill.; a brother, Louis, of Huntington, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Jacob Goerlitz, Booneville, Ind., and a grandson, Ralph Trieger, a student at the University of Washington, Seattle.

Max Morris Among 500 Winner At Annual 4-H Achievement Meeting

More than 500 4-H club members were presented achievement awards at the Annual Achievement meeting held Saturday night at Grayslake High school. Max Morris of the Antioch club received the Chicago Producers sheep project medal.

The awards were presented by farm and home advisers Ray T. Nicholas and Helen Volk at the meeting which was attended by several hundred club members, parents, and friends.

The achievement program climaxed a successful 4-H club season, according to the advisers. Special recognition was given to the many local 4-H Club leaders who give freely of their time and energy to carry on the 4-H Club program in their respective communities. Credit was also given to the Lake county Farm and Home bureaus which sponsor 4-H club work in Lake county.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the presentation of a "What's My Line" program patterned after the popular TV program. A panel of 4-H Club members including Leon Naffziger, Robert Conolly, Helen Cazel, and Mary Lou Fisher tried their skill at figuring out three occupations represented by Rev. Stephen Liddicoat, Minister; Joseph Diechman, fireman; Marian Frandsen, Farm Bureau office secretary. Jack Wirtz and Marian Okubo gave "Commercials" on 4-H Club work. ## Sanitation Problem Aired Before Zoning Board At Hearing Here On Friday

Taverns Get Special Zoning In Amendment of Lake County Law

Approximately 25 persons attended the hearing of the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals in Antioch last Friday.

The board reported that whereas in former years there were just three types of zoning, business, residential, and farms, there will soon be seven: Business, taverns, light industry, heavy industry, residential single, and residential multiple, and farms.

Five persons employed to inspect buildings under the building code will also check zoning rules.

Suggestions made by local contractors involved mainly the matter of sanitation. Vernon Rogers and Emil Hallwas, Jr., contractors, took part in the discussion, the former warning of the danger of pollution in the lakes through faulty sanitation as building increased around them.

Someone mentioned the threat of a sanitary problem at Bluff lake where there is a trailer camp.

The question of breaking up acre plots into lots was also discussed, but the board said a subdivision could not be re-subdivided under present law.

The hearing lost much of its interest when it was learned a few days before that the building code, already adopted by the board of supervisors, would not be discussed.

Antioch Rescue Squad Helps in Effort to Find Bodies of Drowned Men

The Antioch Rescue squad was called elsewhere in Lake county twice during the past week to help recover bodies of drowned persons.

The members worked from 2 to 9:30 p. m. Sunday in dragging the Des Plaines river near Deerfield without success in an attempt to recover the bodies of two duck hunters, George A. Johnston, 31, Highland Park, and his father-in-law, Thomas E. Galloway, Highland.

They drowned when the canoe in which they and two other were riding overturned as Galloway stood up to shoot at some ducks.

Saved were Miss Nancy Johnston, 14, who was rescued by her father, John Johnston, who jumped into the icy waters and swam to where she clung to an inflated pillow, and William Vogg, 14, Deerfield, who clung to the boat until it drifted ashore.

Capt. Herman Holbek believes the bodies of the drowned men have been washed downstream by the swift current.

The Rescue squad helped last Thursday in efforts to raise the body of Walter Inman, 31, Waukegan, a duck hunter drowned Oct. 25, from a jetty in Lake Michigan, at Lake Bluff. The man's leg became wedged in the jetty by driftwood and only when the waters of the lake rose did the body loosen.

Red Cross Appeals for Blood Donations From Antioch Area Citizens

An appeal for blood donations from persons living in the Antioch area was made this week by the Red Cross. The donations will be received Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 26 and 27 at the Red Cross headquarters in Waukegan from noon to 6 p. m.

Reservations can be called to the Waukegan Red Cross or cards obtainable at the Antioch News can be mailed for the same purpose.

Lake county was far below its quota and as the result has been criticized by some for not being willing to aid the wounded in the Korean battle front.

Economic Highlights

There has been so much big news this year that one fact of great political and economic importance has been obscured. The fact that the session of Congress which just ended gave President Truman's all-encompassing social welfare program the complete deep-freeze treatment.

The roster of failure in this regard was complete. The compulsory health insurance proposal wasn't even given hearings in House or Senate. Nor was the equal rights measure, or the Federal Fair Employment Practices law. Nor was the Brannan Plan for production payments to farmers. A bill providing Federal aid to medical education did come to a vote in the Senate, and was decisively defeated. The House ignored this scheme completely.

As the Portland Oregonian said editorially, "No President has asked more social welfare legislation of Congress than has Harry Truman. No President has been more ineffectual in the achievement of a social welfare program."

Mr. Truman didn't get his way in many other matters either. The next tax bill, for example, will produce only about half as much additional revenue as the President asked of Congress—even though it will bring the tax burden to an all-time high save for the peak reached during the last major war.

Mr. Truman cannot blame these setbacks—which obviously rankled him hard—on the Republicans alone. The Democrats have small majorities in both branches of Congress. But a great many Democrats are as opposed to the President's ideas on social and kindred legislation as any Republican. These Democrats are not all from the traditionally conservative South. Some of them have Northern and Western constituencies where Mr. Truman's following is supposed to be strong.

The fact that the President's program was beaten doesn't mean that it is now ancient history. There is one quality in Mr. Truman which is acknowledged by both his friends and enemies, and that quality is stubbornness. He thinks his program is right, and he thinks the masses of the voters want it. If he runs again, he will undoubtedly use it for campaign ammunition, just as he did last time.

One development, in the view of many, is likely to overshadow all other domestic issues in the next campaign—corruption and irregularities in the government. Even such burning issues as taxation and government spending could conceivably be subordinated to it. In the past, nothing, save war, has so inflamed the hearts and minds of the American people as scandals in high places and graft in the government bureaus. The disclosures that have so far been made are, it is believed, merely foreshadowings of even more shocking revelations. That is the kind of thing which has roundly beaten candidates and parties before.

Gross Roots Opinion

East Rochester, N. Y., Herald: "Did anyone ever ask how to increase their take home pay the quickest and easiest? Did anyone ever think that by cutting down on the great masses of rats which are gnawing away at the paycheck of every man, he could get an immediate lift in that take home pay? It's just like a barnful of grain. As long as the rats continue to carry it away, you have to work that much harder to raise more to take up the losses. These Federal rats have waxed fat over the years, and they have grown more and more defiant of the public, by the protection which the government has given them. They have reached a point of an army of rats which not only will not be dislodged, but demand more and more of the public money."

Sycamore, Ohio, Leader: "Alexander F. Jones, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, calls for a prompt end to the free press privileges granted Communist correspondents in Washington."

"Tass Agency (the Soviet press bureau) enjoys the full privileges of the free press in the United States," says Jones. "American reporters in the Soviet countries are subjected to every indignity—even jail—in their attempt to do an honest reporting job. . . . Tass is not a news service. It is a Russian supported and controlled propaganda bureau. Its Russian employees—Mikhail Fedorov in Washington, for example—are Soviet Government employees who come to this country on diplomatic passports. Tass serves no free customers. They represent a government whose political philosophy teaches and advocates the overthrow of the United States. Government by force and violence. Yet these representatives are accorded every privilege of the free press in Washington."

SHORT STORY

Bertha

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

ROY was correcting his English IV mid-year book reviews and the whistling annoyed him. It came from the alley beneath the window at the end of the hall. It had begun early that morning, a bright, cheery whistle, measured, high-pitched. Presently he could stand it no longer. He was not a violent man, but as he descended the back stairs there was a grimness about his mouth.

Roy emerged into the alley and headed for a high board fence, from behind which came the measured whistle. He went through a door in the fence and stopped short. A voice said: "Hi, kid!"

Suspended from a peg in the fence was a cage and in the cage was a parrot. As Roy stared at it the parrot emitted a shrill, piercing whistle.

Roy was in the act of opening the cage door when someone shrieked. He turned to see a girl with red hair and blazing brown eyes rushing at him.

"Don't you dare touch that cage! Who are you? What are you doing here? You were going to harm Bertha!"

"I'm sorry," Roy said. "Unless you remove Bertha from her present location I shall insist on bashing in her stupid head."

Roy blinked. "Yes," he said calmly. "I was going to wring Bertha's scrawny neck. Bertha's whistling annoyed me. It was driving me crazy. All morning long I have been trying to correct my English book reviews. If the book reviews aren't in by tomorrow I'm apt to lose my job."

The girl's eyes brimmed with tears.

"I'm sorry," said Roy. "Unless you remove Bertha from her present location I shall insist on bashing in her stupid head."

The redhead gasped. "And I'll bet you would do it, too! It's only on bright days that I place Bertha outside. Otherwise, she has to stay in where it's dark. If you don't believe me, come and see."

Roy realized that she was appealing to his better nature, if any. He permitted himself to be led into the house. The room, where abode the girl and Bertha, was truly a gloomy place.

"I concede the point," Roy admitted. He stared at the girl closely. "I should think on warm days you'd want to get out into the air yourself."

"I do. I spend nearly all my time looking for a job. Today I stayed home so Bertha could have a sunning. Tomorrow she won't bother you at all."

"Tomorrow," said Roy. "I won't be here to mind." He scratched his chin.

"Look here," he said. "What kind of work are you looking for?"

"I used to be a librarian," said the girl.

"A librarian!" exclaimed Roy. "Would you like a job correcting English IV book reviews?"

The redhead's eyes grew round. "Do you mean—why I'd adore such a job!"

"By the way," he said, "I haven't asked your name."

"It's Roberta Cameron. And if you want these papers tonight, I think you'd better let me get to work on them."

It was in October that Bertha had first aroused Roy's ire. Two weeks before Christmas he asked Roberta an important question. She shook her head. "I couldn't marry you. You don't like Bertha."

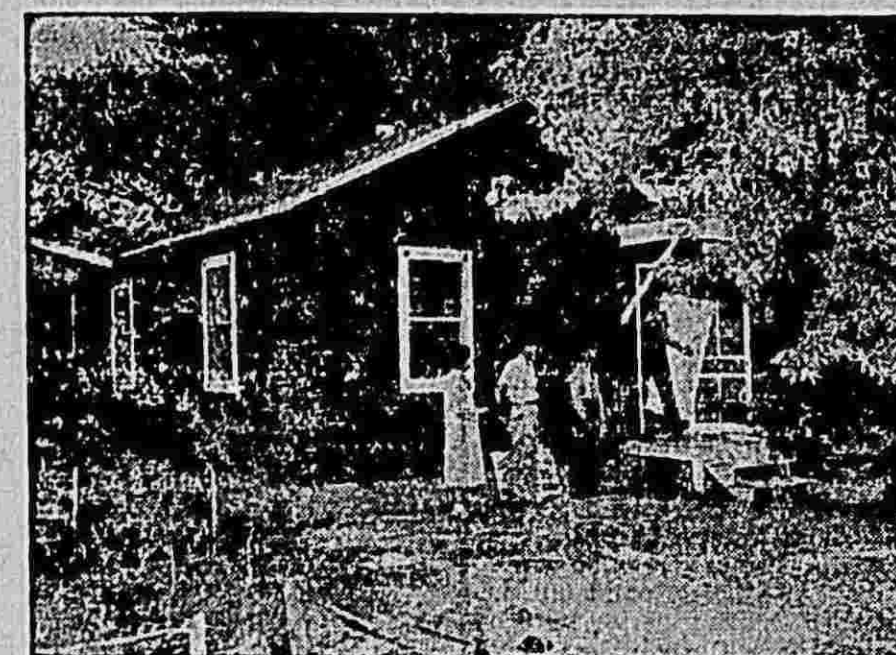

"But I've really grown fond of Bertha!" Roy cried. "Why, if it weren't for Bertha, I'd never have met you."

The day after this, Bertha caught a cold. It was bright and warm in the morning and Roberta left the bird outside while she went to town. At noon it turned cold and began to rain. Attracted by a series of hoarse shrieks, Roy rushed into the alley, seized the cage and returned indoors. Bertha died the next day.

"I—I suppose," said Roberta, "I shouldn't have put her out."

Roy stared. A thousand thoughts galloped through his mind. But he had the good sense not to mention them. Instead he picked up Roberta's hand and Roberta smiled.

RED CROSS BRINGS EARLY THANKSGIVING TO FAMILIES HIT BY FOUR-STATE FLOODS

After last July's floods, 52,275 families in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Illinois were thankful to be alive, but many had lost everything they had worked for. In Wyandotte County, with Kansas City, Kansas, loss was greatest, with 4,725 homes destroyed or damaged. Red Cross, on a basis of individual need, made awards totaling $5,416,550 for assistance in rebuilding and repairing 2,945 homes in that county alone. In the upper photo, a Red Cross worker examines wreckage of a house, typical of damage in the Argentine and Armourdale districts of Kansas City, to estimate its replacement cost. In the four states, 32,057 homes were destroyed or damaged.

Thanksgiving came early for Mrs. Hazel Moberly, below, left, whose house was the first Red Cross-built new house completed in Kansas City, one of 2,945 being repaired or built new in Wyandotte County by the Red Cross. On October 6, she received the key to the house, rebuilt on the old foundation in Kansas City's Argentine district. Red Cross also provided $470 worth of essential furniture. After verification of family needs, Red Cross awards—outright gifts, not loans—totaling $9,645,203.11 have been granted to help in building and repairing 4,800 homes in the four-state flood area. For the more than 25,000 families who applied for Red Cross help, Thanksgiving, 1951, came the day a family received notice that a Red Cross award had been granted to help them come back. ## Snow Ball Theme Of Senior Dance Set For Dec. 22

The Senior class will sponsor a Christmas formal Saturday, Dec. 22, from 8-12, in the grade school gym. The theme is "Snow Ball."

A snow king and queen will be elected from those seniors who haven't as yet received any honor, such as queen, attendant, or cheerleader.

The candidates for queen are Aleeta Ring, Joyce Thulin, Irene Perry, Lois Loneragan, and Gloria Lukkeman.

The king candidates are Don Klier, Dennis Kennedy, Erling Carpenter, Bill Clarke, and Ray Wetzel.

The elected king and queen will be a secret until the night of the dance. Proxy Jim Holt will crown the queen, vice-pres. Arvis Ring will crown the king, and Dennis Kennedy will announce the coronation at 10:00.

The committees, headed by Denise Chrisp, are hard at work.

Deputation Team From Pacific Garden Mission At Methodist Church

The story of God's love will be told in an unusual and inspiring service at the Methodist church in Antioch on Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. A deputation team from the well-known Pacific Garden mission in Chicago will be present for the Sunday evening service which is held each month in the church.

The deputation members are individuals who themselves have been converted by the work of the mission which counts among its converts such persons as Harry Monroe a professional counterfeiter who in turn brought the Gospel to Billy Sunday, world-famed exangelist, at that same mission.

The story of the mission is itself an enchanting one. Following the great fire of 1871 it is recorded that there was not even so much as one rescue mission west of New York. Saloons and vice dens had mushroomed throughout the heart of Chicago. The consecrated hearts of Colonel and Mrs. George R. Clarke gave rise to the mission which although it has moved twice has never closed its doors in the 70 years of its existence.

Through the years men, women and young people have found their way to the mission—as many as 100,000 in a single year.

The group Sunday evening will bring with them an outstanding documentary film in full color, "Out of the Night," a shockingly realistic picture of the "mission boy"—his dreary life amid the squalor of Skid Row.

All are invited to the service on Sunday evening. A free-will offering will be received, the entire amount to be used for the mission and its work.

Lew Adams, Warren Edwards and Tony Seacero of the V. F. W. post, and Mesdames Burt Anderson, Warren Edwards, Arthur Swanson, Myra Randall and Ellen LaVelle of the Auxiliary attended a district meeting of the V. F. W. held at Wheaton, Ill., Monday evening.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Ignatius' church will meet Monday evening, Nov. 26 at 8:00 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Maurice Radtke. This will be a hard time party and members are asked to come dressed appropriately.

Jerry O. Pregrenzer, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pregrenzer, Jr., of Grass Lake, has been advanced in rate to electrician's mate, second class.

CLOTHES TO BE SHIPPED KOREA IMMEDIATELY

Persons in the community who wish to participate in the clothing for Korea drive and who have not done so may leave clothing and goods at the Methodist Church in Antioch up to and including Sunday. The campaign is being sponsored by the Chicago Committee of American Relief for Korea of which World Service is a member.

Items which are in particular need include trousers and overalls, caps and gloves, mittens and mufflers, coats, bathrobes, skirts and sweaters, dresses, socks and underwear, blankets and bedding. Outer clothing of all kinds and in all sizes for infants, boys and girls, men and women are needed. Shoes (low heels only) for persons of all ages are also needed. Clothing must be clean and in good condition.

Goods left at the Church by Sunday will be taken to a depot in Evanston Monday from where they will be sent to shipping centers for overseas shipment. The cost of packing and shipping to Korea is eight cents a pound. Persons wishing the assist in the cost of shipping goods, their own or others, through this channel may send it to Church World Service, in care of the Rev. G. R. Tuttle, Box 145, Antioch. Checks and cash will be sent to Chicago to apply toward shipment of relief goods left at the local church.

SPECIAL TURKEY STUFFING BREAD OFFERED BY A & P

This year homemakers can forget to collect slices of stale bread for stuffing the holiday turkey. Food technicians have developed a fresh bread perfect for the purpose.

The special holiday loaf is being prepared in the bakeries of A & P food stores and delivered, dated-fresh, to the chain's stores throughout the middle-west.

The only difference between this loaf and the company regular white bread, bakery officials point out, is an extended baking period which cures it so it will crumble easily while fresh. It is baked each night and delivered to stores the next morning in exactly the same way as the regular dated loaves.

Women's Club Asks Donations to Supply Food for S. Koreans

Members of the Antioch Woman's club will be at the two Antioch Banks Saturday in receiving contributions for the CARE campaign in providing Korean relief.

The casualty tally for South Korea's civilians run like this: additional war victims, one million; actual sufferers, every person in South Korea.

That summation was cited by CARE representatives who surveyed conditions in that war devastated country and released it to the General Federation of Women's clubs to illustrate the magnitude of relief needs.

The federation through its local Women's Clubs in every part of the United States is currently conducting a Thanksgiving season campaign for funds to send CARE packages of food and clothing to Korean War victims.

Black as conditions are now, according to the CARE survey, the need of food and clothing will grow even more critical during the coming year because of the cumulative effect of malnutrition, the complete loss of personal possessions, the depletion of previous stock piles, and the soaring inflation.

Contributions received through the Federation of Women's clubs are being applied to providing war victims special packages prepared by CARE. Donations can be sent locally to Mrs. Joseph E. Horton, chairman, and delivery will be made in the name of the donor in time for the Christmas holidays.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

WILL ROGERS, ALL-AMERICAN

"ALL I KNOW IS WHAT I READ IN THE PAPERS."

BUT WILL ROGERS DIDN'T GET HIS NATIVE DRAWL, HIS "OKLAHOMY" WIT, HIS BROADLY HUMAN PHILOSOPHY FROM WHAT HE READ IN THE PAPERS."

THESE QUALITIES WERE, LIKE WILL, THE PRODUCT OF HIS NATIVE SOIL, HIS AMERICAN ENVIRONMENT. HE REPRESENTED THE UNIQUE GENIUS OF THE LAND HE LOVED AND DEMOCRACY WASN'T JUST A WORD TO HIM—IT WAS HIS LIFE.

was master of ceremonies for the program.

The achievement program which was in charge of Assistant Youth Adviser, Dorothy McKinley, opened with the audience singing several 4-H songs under the leadership of Ray Laine, Grayslake High School music instructor.

This was followed by a novelty presentation of the kitchen band of the Beach Park Home Bureau unit. The Russell Roses 4-H Club, led by Mrs. Robert Murrie presented a timely skit on safety and accident prevention.

Farm Adviser Nicholas, in presenting the achievement awards to the Agricultural 4-H members emphasized that there are greater things to be won than cash awards, medals, ribbons, and other material things. He stated that the 4-H's meaning head, heart, hands and health embody the finer objectives, aims and achievements of club members. The farm adviser stated that it was much better to be a "blue ribbon" member with a "white ribbon" pig than to be a low grade member with a champion hog.

Winning top honors among Lake county's 239 agricultural club members was George Connell, Jr., member of the North Prairie 4-H club and 17 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Connell, Zion. George, Jr., was named as one of the 26 club members in Illinois to attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago November 25-29. This is the highest honor that Illinois awards to a club member.

In addition to being named Club Congress delegate, George was named state winner in the National 4-H Garden Contest sponsored by the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. George has been enrolled in the North Prairie club, which is led by his father, for eight years. Each year he has won honors on his many projects.

Another club member to receive outstanding recognition this year is LeRoy Wegener, 19 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wegener, Ingleside, and president of the Wauconda-Volo 4-H club. LeRoy was awarded a trip to the Canadian Royal Livestock Show at Toronto, Canada, by the Illinois Holstein-Friesian association. LeRoy has distinguished himself for six years as one of Lake county's outstanding dairy club members.

Webbs Again in Arizona

Ray and Elizabeth Webb are again spending the winter in Douglas, Ariz., but they had difficulty in getting there.

They were in the big snow storm that struck St. Louis, piling up traffic with snow from 12 to 20 inches deep.

"We made only 95 miles on our second day because of the storm," they wrote. "Never saw so many trucks and autos stuck on the roadside—many were wrecked."

The Webbs were at Venita, Okla., before they left the snow.

They have a nice cottage and are enjoying meeting some of their old friends.

Santa Claus Featured On Christmas Seals Distributed Nov. 19

One of the world's most familiar symbols of unselfish giving, Santa Claus, is featured on the 1951 Christmas Seals, which will reach homes of the Lake County residents through the mails on Nov. 19th. Mrs. Gerard Fossland, Lake County Christmas Seal Sale chairman, announced today.

Many volunteer workers for the 1951 Christmas Seal Sale, have been busy in the Tuberculosis Association office for the past two weeks preparing the letters for mailing the new Christmas Seals to Lake County residents. The 1951 sale of Seals will be conducted by the tuberculosis association from Nov. 19th to Christmas Day to raise funds for the tuberculosis control work of the association.

When county residents open their Christmas Seal letter Nov. 19, they will find the jolly face of Santa Claus smiling at them. To adults and children alike, Santa Claus represents unselfish giving and the unselfish gifts of the American people in the last forty-four years, their annual purchases of Christmas Seals have helped immeasurably in this nation's fight against tuberculosis.

The red chubby face of Santa Claus is portrayed on the Christmas Seal against a green-blue background. The designer, Robert Stephens of Newark, N. J., used as a model a clay Santa Claus he had fashioned for his small daughter. Mrs. Gerard Fossland stated that the design was selected from forty-four submitted by artists throughout the country by the Christmas Seal advisory committee, of the National Tuberculosis Association, the committee is composed of representatives of tuberculosis association staffs.

Just as the Christmas Seal is always sold to raise funds to fight tuberculosis, so it always, too, bears the emblem of the international campaign against tuberculosis, the Double-Barred Cross, according to Mrs. Fossland. The Double-Barred Cross, a modification of the Cross of Lorraine, she said, is the registered insignia of the National Tuberculosis Association and its 3,000 affiliates.

In addition to the ever-present menace of the enemy. Dust infiltrates many parts of the cameras, at times causing them to lose much of their pinpoint clarity. The equipment itself takes a beating as the photographers operate in all weather, over rugged terrain, and over bad roads.

Sergeant George W. Johnson, of Binghamton, N.Y., says one of his biggest problems is light.

"Here in Korea the light seems to go to extremes," he said. "There's either too much sun or not enough sun."

Sergeant William Wion, Jr., of Oakland, Calif., who shares a jeep with Johnson and Butler, is not pleased with the backgrounds of his pictures.

"It's either all mountain or all rice paddy," he said, "and nothing in between." But, he added, "that's Korea for you."

Johnson is impressed with the fighting qualities of the Army's infantrymen, tankers, and artillerymen in Korea.

"They seem more professional than the men in World War II," he said.

Never a dull moment, was the attitude of the students of Wilmot High school after an attempted burglary at the school Monday evening. When Mr. Marlin Schnurr, principal, found the dial in his waste basket he notified the sheriff's department. The thief did not get into the safe, it was reported Wednesday, but he did take a few wallets from the lost and found department. Half of the proceeds from the annual carnival were in the safe.

Manchurian Fields Base for Commies' Plane Build-up Try

WASHINGTON, D.C. — What lies behind North Korea's border with Manchuria, along which U.S. and Red planes have been clashing in the biggest jet battles of aviation history?

From the borders of Soviet Siberia southwest in a mighty arc across Manchuria and around the Yellow Sea lie more major airfields than in all the rest of China put together.

Mao Tse-tung's so-called "privileged sanctuary" is criss-crossed with runways laid down by Japan's Kwantung Army in long years when the banners of the Rising Sun floated over puppet Manchukuo. What condition these fields might be in to receive a reported 3,000-plane build-up of Chinese air power is uncertain. But for months indications have come from Korea that Red China is hard at work improving such bases and building new airfields in Manchuria. Events have made plain that at least some of these installations are operational for jet aircraft.

North Korea's airfields—what few the Japanese built among the tumbled mountains—have been pounded by United Nations planes since the Korean fighting began.

North of the ridges which pile to 8,000-foot peaks along the Manchurian border, however, is the flat, board valley of the Sungari River, one of the richest agricultural areas on earth, rising gradually to the treeless plateau of western Manchuria.

Westward across the Yellow Sea from Korea and south of China's Great Wall stretches another plain along the East China coast, through which wander the Yellow and Yangtze Rivers. There, too, the Shantung peninsula points like an outstretched tongue straight at Korea, closer to Seoul than any U.S. airfield in Japan.

A new National Geographic Society map of Asia, published in March, shows principal airports at 26 Manchurian and Chinese cities, all of which are closer to the heart of Korea than Tokyo. Among them are Shanghai, Nanking, Tientsin, Tientsin and Peiping itself. At the end of World War II, there were more than 40 military airfields in Manchuria alone.

New Style U.S. Currency Baffles Bank President

HIWATHA, Kas.—Roy Ruth, bank president in the near-by community of Everest, found that counting money can become a problem. Recently he broke open a bundle of $5 bills and carefully counted them. They totaled $500.

As a check, he turned them over to recount. This time he got a total of $530.

Checking, re-checking and turning over each crisp bill carefully, he made a startling discovery:

Six of the notes, fresh from government presses, were $5 denominations on one side, $10 on the opposite.

Lad in 'Hoppy' Sweater Is Youngest Volunteer

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa.—The husky military policeman blinked at the little boy, dressed in jeans and a Hopalong Cassidy sweater sauntered up to the entrance to the Valley Forge Army Hospital and said politely: "I've come to read for blind patients."

The soldier took the lad to the commanding officer. Eddie Dworcheck, 11 years old, had hitchhiked from Paoli, 10 miles away, although friends had laughed at his idea of volunteering as a "reader."

The officer didn't laugh. Neither did the blind patients as Eddie read to them from two books he had brought under his arm: biographies of Lou Gehrig and Joe Di Maggio.

Army Rescuers Hold Marine Pilot Until Ransom Paid

WITH THE FIRST MARINE AIR WING IN KOREA — Pilots of a Leatherneck "Devilcat" squadron, paid a rare price for the return of one of their comrades.

The "ransom" was 100 pounds of steak. And it was paid not to the Reds, but to a hungry and prankish U.S. Army helicopter outfit.

Marine Captain Russell G. Patterson, shot down behind enemy lines in central Korea, was rescued by an Army helicopter.

The 'copter men refused to return him to his home carrier until Captain Patterson's squadron mates came through with the "chow."

Senator Thinks Rainmakers Partly to Blame for Floods

WASHINGTON — Senator C. A. (R., S.D.) believes that the operations of "rain makers" might have had something to do with the disastrous floods in Kansas and Missouri.

Case reported that artificial rain makers operating in Oregon, Nebraska, Colorado, and the Dakotas "seeded enormous areas with silver iodide."

The Dakota senator said there is immediate need for a scientific appraisal of rain making in order to "find out who is doing what, and how." Other sections of the country might welcome the efforts (limited, of course) of the rain men.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Met

THANKSGIVING

IN GRATITUDE FOR BOUNTIFUL CROPS AFTER THEIR FIRST WINTER OF FAMINE, THE PILGRIMS HELD A FEAST OF THANKSGIVING IN NOVEMBER OF 1621

IT IS IN THAT SPIRIT OF GRATITUDE THAT WE SHOULD CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING TODAY — GRATITUDE FOR OUR MATERIAL WELL-BEING, BUT DEEPER GRATITUDE THAT THE RELIGIOUS SPIRIT AND SENSE OF PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY THE PILGRIMS ESTABLISHED IN AMERICA ARE STILL OURS TO ENJOY.

THEY ARE ALSO OURS TO MAINTAIN — SO THAT OUR CHILDREN, AND OUR CHILDREN'S CHILDREN, WILL ENJOY THOSE BLESSINGS —

AND BE THANKFUL.

Sunday visitors at the William Richards home were Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGovern and family and Mrs. Anna Oberst, all from Chicago.

Cooking Beef

The tenderness of beef is the basis for the selection of which cooking method should be used. The tenderness of beef hinges on several things, including the location of the cuts on the carcass, the grade of the meat and the amount of aging that the meat has had since the animal was slaughtered.

Nickel Prospecting

In 1950, some 24,000 square miles of area—equivalent to a ten-mile-wide strip across the North American continent from Vancouver, B.C., to New York City—were prospected by International Nickel, and detailed surveys made of 3,215 square miles. In 1949, the area prospected was 20,000 square miles and, in 1948, 10,000 square miles. The number of feet of exploration drilling in Canada in 1950 was 260,127, or equivalent to a total depth of fifty miles, compared with 149,300 feet in 1949, and 147,093 feet in 1948.

THANKSGIVING

Tradition tells us that the first Thanksgiving Day was in 1621, a year after the Mayflower landed, when the initial harvest was in. We think tradition is wrong. For we can be sure that the Pilgrims celebrated Thanksgiving in 1620. . . . that in the midst of an unknown wilderness they thanked God for a safe voyage to a land where they might live as free men and women.

Geologists Spur
World Progress
Through Surveys

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The geologist has come into his own.
The scientist who studies the nature and distribution of rocks, soil, water, and other components of the earth's crust has all the work he can handle, observes the National Geographic Society.

The whole world is his onlooker. His employers are the world's national and provincial governments, its research and educational institutions, and a growing list of industries. His skill, leading to discovery of metal ore deposits, reservoirs of oil and other treasures, constantly spurs economic progress.

Delaware, first of the 48 states to enter the Union, pointed up the fact of the geologists' current heyday early this summer by becoming not the first but the 48th state to establish its own permanent geology
staff.

Federal Survey Blazes Trail

Delaware, next to smallest and the lowest in mean altitude among the states, has had less need than other states for the geologist's help.
Its new Delaware State Geological Survey will mesh field operations
with the U.S. Geological Survey, explore mineral resources, surface
and underground water flow, record rock strata suitable for road and building stone.

Most state geological surveys have earned permanent status only since 1900. New Jersey, Michigan, and Alabama are among the few whose earth-crust researches have been continuous since soon after the close of the Civil War.

Virtually all states east of the Mississippi River, however, took filers in geology more than a century ago. The Carolinas separately authorized field excursions in 1823-24. State geological surveys labeled as such were launched by Massachusetts in 1830, by Tennessee in 1831, and by Maryland in 1833.

Geologists of the U.S. Geological Survey, established in 1879, have made more than 4,000 large-scale contour maps of quadrangles within the 48 states, all accurately compiled in the field. Useful in many ways, these maps have proved indispensable to private developers of resources in interpreting earth-crust structure.

Groups of specialists work effectively within the Federal Survey.
The fuels group, studying the relative geology of coal, oil, and gas, has since 1920 taken much of the chance out of the search for oil by developing knowledge of the signs favorable to well-drilling. The metals group, studying the occurrence of ore deposits, has guided mining engineers to actual deposits of many metals, and leads the search for metals in which the nation is short.

Hot Weather Is Not Cause
Of Insomnia, Experts Say

With hot weather ahead of us
many people are already beginning to blame their sleepless nights on the humidity and the heat. Although this can contribute to sleeplessness, it is not the cause.

That aged-old villain, insomnia,
thrives on people who have too many worries and fears. It is the daytime problems that creep into the bedroom that drive away sleep.

The best way, naturally, to woo
sleep is to have a comfortable bed.
A completely level mattress and spring with the degree of resiliency suited to the individual is a natural sleep-inducer. One can assume any number of different positions on well-constructed bedding so that each part of his body has a chance to rest.

A popular and effective way of luring sleep is the trick of making oneself relax by de-kinking nerves and muscles or by diverting the thoughts that will not give in to sleep.

Reading an absorbing or humorous book will also change one's train of thought and allow sleep to come more easily. A hobby, visiting with friends, or taking a short walk also relaxes these nerves and muscles and brings sleep within easy reach.

A recent survey in the United States showed that "very happy" people are bothered less with insomnia than are people who are battered down with worries and fears.

Vacuum Cleaners
Big Help In Aiding
Medicine Intake

ANN ARBOR—Chronic asthma
and bronchitis sufferers will find that their vacuum cleaner may be a big help to them in taking their medicine, three University of Michigan doctors have found.

If the vacuum cleaner has a blow-er exhaust, it can be easily and inexpensively rigged to an atomiz-ing spray device which makes light work of daily home treatment, the doctors reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Extensive research results with various kinds of nebulizer (fine spray) equipment are described by Drs. John M. Sheldon, Robert G.
Lovell and Kenneth P. Mathews of the Allergy Clinic.

Usually, patients with chronic chest and sinus infections must take mouth sprays of penicillin, streptomycin, adrenalin or other prescribed drugs, about four times
a day.

The nebulizer can be hand operated, which is often exhausting for the very sick person, or it can be operated by a tank of compressed oxygen but this is a rather expensive mechanism for many persons,
the doctors explained.

The doctors discovered that by using about ninety cents of tubing,
a gallon jug and a vacuum cleaner
with a blower exhaust, a very effective arrangement for operating a nebulizer could be provided.

Two strips of rubber tubing are used in the set-up. One tube is connected to the cleaner's exhaust outlet and a gallon jug half-filled with water. The other tube also connects with the jug while its other end is attached to the nebulizer.

When the vacuum cleaner is turned on, the blower forces air through the tubes and up into the compartment where the medicine is contained. The forced air blows the medicine into the respiratory passages in a fine spray. By passing through the water-filled jug, the air is cleaned of the room dust.

Army's Caribbean Command
May Take College Courses

Servicemen of the Army's Caribbean Command will be given an opportunity to attend college classes beginning this September due to the establishment of resident centers by Louisiana
State University.

Informed of the lack of such facilities, Lt. Gen. Troy Middleton, president of the university,
began plans to set up centers
similar to those maintained in Europe by the University of Maryland and in the Far East
by the University of California
in cooperation with the Army's Troop Education Program.

The Louisiana State University
staff also is studying the possibility of opening classes in Puerto Rico.

Anglers Note: Toss First
Catch Back To Catch More

Fishermen who believe in "luck"
(and what fisherman doesn't?) will be pleased to learn that the editors of The World Book Encyclopedia have gathered together fishing superstitions of the last 2,000 years.

So, if your lucky frayed trousers
and battered old hat are letting you down this season, possibly one of these tried and tested old-time do's
and don'ts will improve your fish-less fishing.

Possibly, you have insulted Neptune by not throwing your first catch back into the water. Assuming, of course, that you have a first catch, it is impossible to have continued luck if you don't toss your first finny wiggler back to King Neptune so that he will grant a good fishing day. Any Roman who ever dangled a fishhook into the Mediterranean will testify to the accuracy of this statement.

The Phoenicians were a bit more material in dealing with sea gods.
They reasoned that the king of the sea had all the fish he could handle, so they concealed a coin in the bait. This indicated that they were willing to pay for all the fish taken from his ocean kingdom.

If a fisherman in old Scotland met a stranger or a woman in a white apron, he promptly did an about-face and put his fishing off till another day.

Other ancient taboos forbid baiting the hook with the left hand,
and telling anyone the correct number of fish that were caught.

Pessimistic Taxpayer Knows
Who Really Foots the Bill

DETROIT, Mich.—It's Papa who pays, all the time. Even on special occasions, as Father's Day, Papa
still foots the bill, and he knows it.
This fact might help to explain
the attitude of a long-time taxpayer
recently honored by the city of Detroit.

Sixty-five Detroit residents who have been paying taxes for more than 50 years received fancy certificates at City Hall in the nation's first ceremony honoring the taxpayer.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo presented a small badge, a flower and a certificate to each of the elderly taxpayers. Said one of the honored taxpayers: "We probably paid for this, too."

Abadan Oil Port
Had Spectacular
Growth Period

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The eyes of the oil-consuming world are turned toward Iran and a steaming hot port near the head of the Persian Gulf.

There, centered in the small city and big refinery of Abadan, Iran's huge petroleum industry developed under British concession stands at a crucial turning point. Behind stretch four decades of spectacular growth. Ahead lies an uncertain future, initiated by the Iranian government's recent nationalization of all its oil resources, and followed by British appeal of the case to the International Court of Justice.

Although concessions to other foreign-controlled companies have been taken up and later abandoned,
the British operation is the only recent one. Its overall plant includes the world's largest refinery
at Abadan, another at Kermanshah, and seven producing fields in southwest and western Iran.

In Nomad Land

At the turn of the century Abadan Island, cut by winding canals at the mouth of the Shatt al 'Arab,
presented a series of desolate mud flats, fringed by date palms.

North and east of the island, the now industrialized oil districts were little more than mountain and desert wastelands, where nomad life went on much as it had since the days of Harun-al-Rashid, Caliph of the "Arabian Nights."

The region's oil—destined to place
Iran among the world's leading producers—was by no means then unknown. In prehistoric times oil springs and gas outlets had fed
"eternal flames" housed by Zoro-aster temples. Visitors of 200 years before had found the people not only burning petroleum for fuel, but using it in medicines, varnishes, and paints.

It remained for pioneers from the West, however, to turn on the commercial spigots. In 1901 Iran granted British subject William D'Arcy an oil concession covering all the country except its northern provinces.

Oil-Made Booms

After many disappointments, the first valuable oil deposits were discovered in 1908 at Masjed-Sulaiman
in the Zagros Mountains about 120 miles northeast of Abadan Island.

The Anglo-Persian Oil Company (later called Anglo-Iranian) was soon formed. Added to private investments were the contributions of the British government, which was eventually to hold the controlling majority of the stock.

Other wells gushed liquid gold in the Zagros foothills. More oil turned up at Naft-i-Shah, midway along the Iran-Iraq border in the west. From Naft-i-Shah the petroleum was pumped over the mountains to the Kermanshah refinery and distributed in the form of kerosene and gasoline over much of northern Iran.

At Abadan a half dozen pipelines
poured rivers of oil into a complex, modern refinery whose annual capacity is now estimated at 20 million tons.

In the oilfields and refineries
some sixty to seventy thousand workers have been employed by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company. The town and neighboring villages that have grown up around the Abadan refinery count 140,000 or more inhabitants.

New roads, airfields, and housing developments have been built, and various training, education, health and recreation programs have been put into effect by the Company as part of its huge Iranian investment and working operation.

Elmer, Electric Salesman,
Is Shrewd Change Maker

SYDNEY, Australia—Elmer is an able salesman—and one of the most unique in the world. Elmer (short for electric merchant) is a quick-sale robot carrying cargo from soup
to nuts.

Inventor T. S. Skillman says that the robot is the only one of its kind in existence, and can handle up to 25 articles at one time.

Among items Elmer sells are sandwiches, rolls, soft drinks, cigarettes, chewing gum, packages of tea and candy.

The robot easily foils counterfeiters by testing the thickness, diameter, weight and silver content of a coin "within a fraction of a second."

Trade Journal Says Can't Always Let Kids Have Way

LONDON, Eng. — "UNFAIR!"
"Unfair!" So screamed the trade journal publication Tailor and Cutter recently when it came out fighting mad at a proposal to dress all British children alike.

Conservative Sir William Darling
made the proposal before the House of Commons. He contended that a standard uniform would cut sharply into the cost of clothing on an inflated market. The kids, he said, would love it.

Magazine editor John Taylor said
the kids would "probably" like it,
but "would also like to smoke, stay up until 4 o'clock in the morning,
and live on jam."
